

Joel Mark Joseph Sampath

Enthusiastic Computer Science Student

Summary

Greetings! I'm Joel Mark Joseph S,

My passion for finance made me build couple of projects based on banking sector.

- I am very interested in applying Data Science based solutions in financial application development.
- Dedicated and motivated 3rd-year student at PBR VITS with an interest for crafting digital solutions and making a meaningful impact through software development.
- Proficient in Java Swings, Python Tkinter, HTML, and CSS, with a strong foundation in coding and web design.
- My proficiency in Guitar playing and Dance shows my active participation in non-technical Programs.
- Proactively seeking enriching internships and honed skills into tangible real-world projects.
- I'm eager to connect and engage in a collaborative exploration of how I can infuse your team with a revitalizing blend of fresh perspectives, boundless energy, and a steadfast commitment to transforming innovative concepts into concrete reality.
